Bio

Shef Ebony, the Chef with an S believes that choosing the right Chef should be simple. That's why her clients choose her for their food experiences.

As a Master Chef and Food Designer, Shef Ebony has thrilled countless people from corporate clients to those looking to start their chef careers. Intimate dinners and cooking demonstrations hosted by Shef Ebony herself, she has found countless ways to bring the excitement and skill of a Master Chef to any occasion.

Being a leader in the culinary industry, Shef Ebony has been highly sought by IKEA Atlanta, Cox Media, and Georgia Power to name a few, to partner with them to bring extraordinary events to their kitchen or place of business. Likewise, up and coming Chefs near and far lean on her for her expertise in getting started on their journey. Through her mentorship program, she ensures they know the ins and outs of the food industry, the parts they do not teach in school.
